

Aug 27, 2019

AAU Chancellor and the Indian ambassador discuss cooperation aspects

Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh, AAU Chancellor, met HE. Navdeep Suri, the Indian ambassador at the UAE and Ms. Smita Pant, Deputy Chief of Mission, to review a number of academic, educational and social topics and ways of enhancing cooperation between Al Ain University and the Indian universities; in order to; ensure the highest quality standards in education for university students from the Indian community.

Atatreh reviewed on the AAU achievements since its establishment, most recent; the new extension of Al Ain campus, which is designed according to the highest quality standards; the new academic programs such as; Master of Criminal Sciences and Bachelor of Science in Cybersecurity, where they aim to enhance the student's skills to commensurate with the labor market and keeps pace with the technology.

The Ambassador was briefed on the establishment stages of Al Ain University, its achievements, the future development plans, and the role played by the AAU's administration to contribute in the UAE development process. He also described the bilateral relations between the UAE and India, expressing his full readiness to provide all support and cooperation for the Al Ain University and exchange of information and expertise for the benefit of the UAE, India, society and students.

Dr. Atatreh stressed on the importance of this visit, which enhance toward the vision of Al Ain University in consolidating its relations with various local and international institutions.

Press Release Link