AAU Librarians Attend Sharjah Library Conference

Recognizing the importance of continuing education and developing professional knowledge and skills for employees, AAU librarians Mr. Muhaid Abshar Abdelwahab and Mr. Rafi Shibili Muhammed Sadiq participated in the sixth Library Conference organized by the Sharjah International Book Fair in cooperation with the American Library Association (ALA).

The conference was held within two days at the Sharjah Exhibition Center in the presence of participants from all over the world. The conference topics dealt with vital and contemporary topics about providing advanced information services, attracting users, and applying advanced technologies in academic and special libraries. It is worth mentioning that, this conference is considered one of the most important conferences for librarians in the UAE. The conference provided lots of opportunities for specialists and experts to exchange useful and valuable ideas and experiences and also to identify publishers and information partners that provide excellent services for the development of libraries and information centers.
