

Mar 23, 2022

A workshop on finance and accounting between the past and the present

The College of Business at Al Ain University (Abu Dhabi Campus) in collaboration with the IMA (Institute of Management Accountants) and Abu Dhabi Chapter, organized an event under the title: Finance and Accounting Students and Professionals Symposium 2022: Past, Present, Future and Beyond.

The overall objective of the Symposium is to understand the career path of business students and professionals, which would give highlights on the reminiscing of the past of the professionals to share with students, understand the action plan they need to do in the present. Also, to have an insight and plan for the future and to look forward to what is beyond the career and profession and its importance towards global recognition of accountants and finance students and professionals, including the acknowledgment of the CMA and CSCA professional passers and Al Ain University Student Chapter by Mr. Amer Al Ahabbi - The president of Abu Dhabi Chapter.

The interactive session between Finance and Accounting and Professionals was run by Mr. Florendo Padilla- a senior recruitment consultant and moderated by Dr. Riham Muqattash College of Business.

Press Release Link