The university president honors the administrative staff

Organized by the Human Resources Unit (Al Ain Campus), Prof. Ghaleb Al-Refae, President of Al Ain University (AAU), honored the administrative employees who have completed 5, 10, and 15 years at the university, in recognition of their diligent efforts, dedication, and unlimited contributions.

Prof. Al-Refae said: "We are proud of the dedication and excellence demonstrated by the university staff, and this recognition is a token of appreciation for the efforts exerted by the employees in the university. It serves as an incentive for everyone to continue making further efforts to develop the work environment and enhance the culture of belonging to the institution. It is an honor for us to work within this large family that contributes to the development and service of the local community."

In turn, Ms. Sidra Shaheen, the Manager of the Human Resources Unit, praised the presence of the AAU President, in honoring the employees and the collective efforts of all the staff. She emphasized that this recognition stems from the university's belief in the importance of appreciating every sincere work and outstanding effort made to serve society and elevate the work system.
