The College of Business organizes Orientation Day for New Students for the 2024-2025 Academic Year

The College of Business (Abu Dhabi Campus) organized an orientation day for the new students who joined Al Ain University at the start of the 2024-2025 academic year.

The orientation day provided College of Business students with the opportunity to adapt to the new environment, explore learning pathways effectively, and acclimate to the campus setting while understanding academic expectations. The orientation also provided valuable information related to academic advising resources, course registration (Banner), learning and support services, the Entrepreneurship Center, the Simulation Trading Room, and plans for preparing to take the IMA and SHRM certification exams, which are aligned with the Bachelor of Business Administration programs in Accounting and Human Resource Management. Students were also introduced to extracurricular opportunities and practical learning experiences they will encounter in the college, fostering a sense of belonging to the university community. Additionally, they had the opportunity to meet the college's faculty and administrative staff, strengthening collegial relationships.
