

Al Ain University

Deanship of Scientific Research & Graduate Studies > Dean's Message

Dean's Message

The Deanship of Scientific Research and Graduate Studies at the Al Ain University is working on the regulation of scientific research and graduate studies, where they set out their plans and in cooperation and coordination with the deanships various university colleges in terms of production of scientific high-quality service of the development of human society in light of their potential and capabilities and through the goals and policies desired for the opportunity to maximize the options and capacity-building and provision of education and continuous change towards a better society.

University focuses on supporting projects and research, to support the publication of books and attending conferences and seminars will also focus on the evaluation of proposals to establish new programs for graduate studies put the instructions and regulations for graduate studies and scientific research and work on updated continuously.

View Page